Watson town
Pa.

J.H.C.

The page features a large, abstract graphic design. It consists of several thick, curved black lines that sweep across the top and right sides of the page. On the left side, there is a vertical grid of small, dark, rectangular shapes. Below this grid, a series of horizontal lines extend across the page, resembling a horizon or a body of water. The overall design is minimalist and modern.

FOREWORD

Using the Pleasure Cruise as its theme, the class of 1958 has the honor of launching the U.S.S. Warrior.

Under the efficient guidance of the editors, Suzanne Sheffer, and Albert Brower, and the literary advisership of Miss Hamblin and Mr. Tarnowski, and the financial advisership of Mr. Holtzman, and Mr. Wolf, and the crew, the entire yearbook staff, hope that you, the passengers, will enjoy your ocean voyage.

Without the generous contributions of the citizens and the business organizations of the surrounding area, this trip would not have been possible.

CAPTAIN'S MESSAGE

To the Seniors:

Commencement marks the beginning of a new life for many of you.

I hope that when you take your place in our adult society that you will have an opportunity to use your talents to the utmost and that you will find yourself properly prepared to do so. The world needs well-trained young people who will eventually take the responsibilities of us who are older. I know you will have equipped yourself well for your part in the world's work.

Sincerely yours,

Orrin G. Cocks, Jr

U.S.S. WARRIOR

R.A.C.

We the class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty Eight bestow the dedication of this edition of the Warrior on

MR. JOHN E. CORMAN

For five years Mr. Corman has been a symbol of education to the graduating class. During his career at W.H.S., he has been a teacher, coach, and adviser.

Mr. Corman possesses a remarkable knowledge of the subjects he teaches. This display of knowledge has inspired us, and prepared us to meet and accept the outside world.

Not only is Mr. Corman an excellent teacher, but an outstanding coach as well. His philosophy in sports can be applied to life also: More important than to win is to play the game and play it well.

For all these reasons, and many more, the graduating class has chosen Mr. Corman their Man of the Year.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the Graduates:

There are many steps on the ladder to success. You have now reached the time in your life that you are ready to take the first step. You will find at times that the ladder is quite steep; sometimes the steps are far apart. Many of these obstacles can be overcome by hard, honest work. Aim for the top and always keep plugging.

SHIP'S LOG

September 6, 1955: We left port at 01300 hours; weather conditions — good, visibility — good; however, sea was rough. Passengers were ill at ease.

Officers on board were Karen McHenry, Don Frey, Suzanne Sheffer, Paula Anderson, and Pollie Gardner.

March 25, 1956: Passengers began to get the feel of the ship. A successful bake sale was held below deck. Weather — rainy. Slight overcast the beginning of April.

April 13, 1956: Sky clear when members on board held a dance "The Superstitious Delight" at 01800 hours in the ship's gym. The dance was well attended and successful.

June 8, 1956: At 01000 hours docked at Port Summer Vacation.

September 5, 1956: Resumed cruise at 01300 hours. Weather conditions — fine, sea was slightly rough, but passengers were well adapted.

Officers on board were Jack Biddle, James Weaver, Paula Anderson, and Wayne Greiner.

November 16, 1956: Big dance, by name "The Bug Bounce", held on board at 01800 hours. Ship moving along well at top speed.

December 18, 1956: Class rings ordered after summer dock were received by passengers. All aboard in good spirits.

February 15, 1957: Valentine's Day taken to heart. All passengers and stowaways met in gym for "Dance of the Hearts" at 01800 hours. Fair weather prevailed; passengers and crew making much progress.

March 22 & 23, 1957: Entertainment on board in form of a play "The Brain Storm" produced by talented passengers.

June 4, 1957: Stopped along the shore of Education, at second summertime port. Passengers were anxious to go ashore.

September 3, 1957: Passengers resumed voyage with mixed emotions. Some anxious, some reluctant, to take their last voyage. Weather conditions — excellent, visibility — excellent, sea — very calm.

Officers aboard Jack Biddle, Greg Adams, Paula Anderson, and Emmett Reynolds. Many new and different happenings experienced during the first several months.

November 27, 1957: Everyone anxious for Thanksgiving, and all on deck for the dance, "Plymouth Rock and Roll." Passengers busy and content.

December 6 & 7, 1957: Entertainment on board with "A-Feudin' Over Yonder," a laugh-provoking hillbilly play.

December 20, 1957: Ship docked at Christmas port for brief stay.

January 2, 1958: Passengers resumed voyage with new excitement and concern, as only a few months remained until we would reach our last port.

February 28, 1958: A "Sadie Hawkins Dance" kept the female passengers happy. During March, April and May ship moved at top speed, with fine weather prevailing.

May 23, 1958: An inventory of the passengers for possessions acquired in ports along the shore of Education was taken. Everything present and accounted for.

May 26, 1958: Stowaways and crew were entertained by passengers in assembly with a look of what had happened during their cruise.

May 29, 1958: More festivities, with passengers presenting their class day.

June 1, 1958: Baccalaureate services were held in ship's chapel. It was an inspiring service.

June 3, 1958: Docked at last port. A happy, mature line of passengers descended the gang plank with suitcases full of possessions, and heads swimming with happy thoughts and experiences. Some have come to shore permanently to seek jobs and find new homes. Others will soon board a larger ship to cruise along the shore of higher education. One thing is certain — The voyage was successful.

DEDICATION

The Class of 1958 is proud to dedicate "The Warrior" to a very kind and thoughtful faculty member who has helped us along our hard journey toward graduation.

MR. MENGES has given us guidance and advice with a sincere interest in our class activities and in our personal well-being.

So it is with grateful hearts and sincere gratitude that we dedicate this publication of the "The Warrior" to MR. S. LEE MENGES.

The graduation of the class of '58 signifies the passing of an era, for in the commencement exercises this year the last Turbotville graduate will pass through our school's portal. However, as in all of life, that which marks the end of one phase, also marks the beginning of another.

We who are directly connected with the school will be thinking in terms of a new school and of a new school year. You, who are graduating, are thinking of the place in society which you will now be expected to fill. I suggest that it behooves each and every one of us, graduate, underclassman, parent and teacher to have faith in the future which is ours to make. Enter this new phase with confidence in yourself, trust in your fellow man, and assurance that your life will reflect the effort of these past six years.

Let me wish to each of you the best in everything as you go into your respective worlds of tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Joseph H. Wolfe

Class Officers

LOG

FRESHMAN YEAR

We have entered deep water, and are trying our sea legs as we enter our freshman year, our first year of senior high school.

Our officers on deck are:

President Thomas Flora
Vice-President Blaine Cooper
Secretary Sherman Sheatler
Treasurer George Rovenolt
Pilots Mrs. Perrego, Mr. Wagner

March, 1955: Our showboat number in the play contest is "No More Boys," directed by Mrs. Perrego and Mr. Wagner. We hit a sand bar and placed fourth both nights.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

As we became accustomed to the current, our sailing gets smoother. Several members of the class are suffering from seasickness, because of the hard studying in senior high.

Officers on deck for this cruise are:

President Effie Hoffman
Vice-President Kay Helwig
Secretary Nancy McCollum
Treasurer Judy Miller
Pilots Mrs. Perrego, Mr. Mordan

November, 1955: The crew contributed to a very successful bake sale.

February, 1956: We got shore leave and held a roller skating party.

March, 1956: Our contribution to the play contest this year was, "Comin' Round the Mountain," directed by Mrs. Perrego. We placed second and fourth.

April, 1956: We took a scenic cruise to Gettysburg and Harrisburg with Mr. Cyril Menges.

JUNIOR YEAR

By this time we're clipping along at twenty knots.

Officers on deck for this very important trip are:

President Jim Sommers
Vice-President Judy Miller
Secretary Nancy McCollum
Treasurer Anna Hilbert
Pilot Mr. S. Lee Menges

November, 1956: The crew had another bake sale which really put us in the money.

January, 1957: We all went A.W.O.L. and had a good time at our skating party.

February, 1957: We struck pay dirt with our class play, "Look Behind You," directed by Mrs. Bower and Mr. Hoffman.

March, 1957: There was smoother sailing in the play contest this year. We placed second and third with our play, "Of All Things," which was directed by Miss Fry.

April, 1957: We held our Easter candy sales, and went sightseeing in Philadelphia with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sechler, and Mr. S. Lee Menges.

May, 1957: The passengers of the junior and senior classes held a shipboard dance, the junior-senior prom.

We selected our class colors, lavender and white, and our class flower, the white carnation.

SENIOR YEAR

After a four year cruise, we have finally sighted land. It was a long hard trip, but with the guidance of our pilots and the co-operation of our crew, we have finally landed.

The officer on deck for this final chapter are:

President Thomas Flora
Vice-President Wayne Mingle
Secretary Mary Dye
Treasurer Lee Rovenolt
Pilot Mr. Calvin Menges

November, 1957: Our final showboat presentation was our senior class play, "Deadly Ernest," which was directed by Mr. Tarnowski.

January, 1958: Crew and officers alike joined forces to hold another skating party.

March, 1958: This year we sponsored the one act play contest.

April, 1958: The passengers had their last fling before the Warrior was permanently docked.

Other projects on deck this year were: a bake sale, a skating party, and the junior-senior prom.

The most important projects which we, as seniors, sponsored, is this yearbook, the official log of four years of successful sailing.

The ship docks, the gangplank is lowered, and the passengers spread throughout the country, to proceed toward their next ports of call.

FUTURE PORTS OF CALL

George Rovenolt was elected president of the Sleepy Democrats Club last night.

FADS AND FASHIONS

Going steady is in its fame,
No Paula, He Tarzan — You Jane.

Wearing car coats is all the style,
And they'll stay that way for quite awhile.

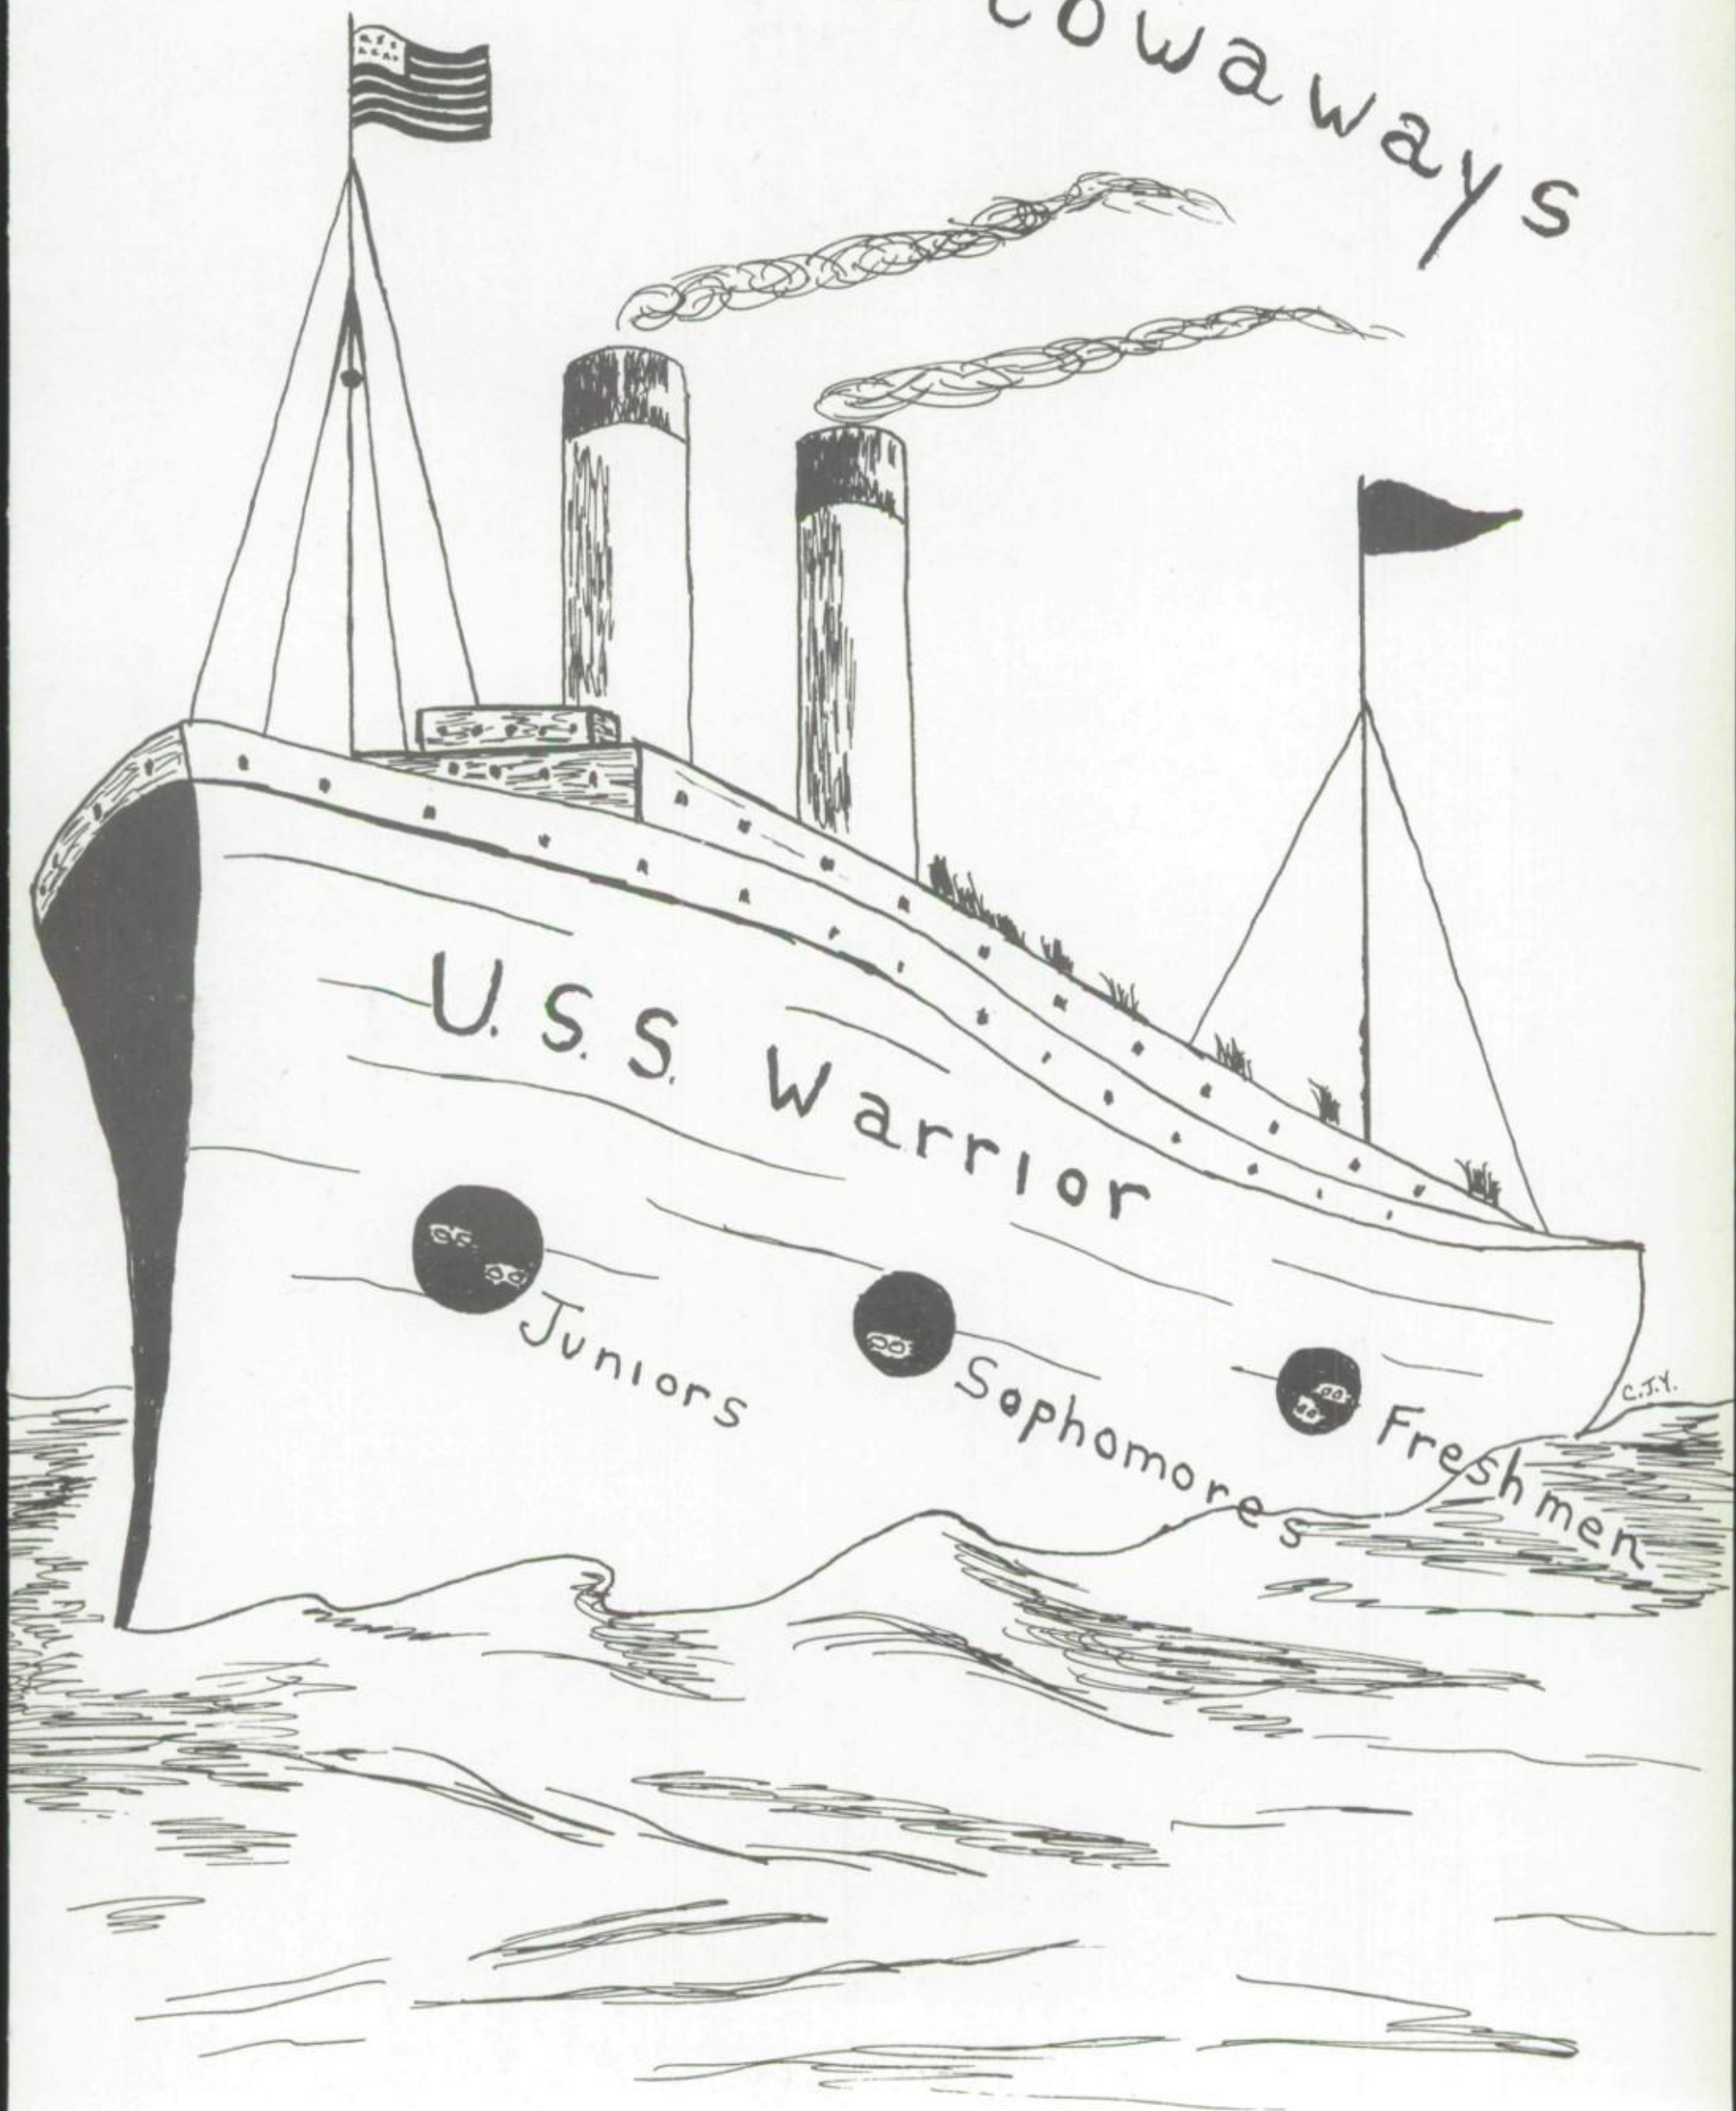

Hot rods lined up side by side,
They'll give you a whoppin' ride.

Everyone's wearing buttons and buckles,
Come on Flora, give out with the chuckles.
